DEDICATION

I am 68 years old and a severe, insulin dependent, diabetic. My wonderful wife, Mildred Irene, is 64 years old, and she is oxygen dependent 24 hours a day. We just recently passed our forty-sixth wedding anniversary.

It was certainly due to Mildred's continued support over these last forty-six years that made it even remotely possible for me to devote twenty -five years of daily efforts into researching, documenting and compiling the PUTMAN lineage. Thank you Mildred.

It is my sincere hope that my efforts will be of benefit to many of you in your quest for your personal family heritage.

FORWARD

Some years ago, I began to wonder about the history of my family, so I bought a book on the subject and began what was to become quite a journey. I started to search out and record every family record I could find. I interviewed every relative I could reach within driving distance. I began to visit every county court house, every library, every cemetery, every land record office, and every Historical Society.

Little did I know that I would continue on this journey for over a quarter of a century! Mildred would pack picnic lunches and we would walk the cemeteries and record the headstones. It seemed like a picnic table was a standard offering at every cemetery we explored. When I interviewed various people, many would not reveal any information to me until I convinced them I was not the law or a federal agent!

During the early years of my adventure, I recorded all information on 3 by 5 index cards. Over time, there were thousands of hand written index cards, indexed alphabetically in cardboard shoe boxes. I would buy postage stamps in rolls of 100 stamps. The #9 and the #10 size envelopes were each purchased in boxes of 500. All queries and all envelopes were hand written in the beginning. The advent of computer technology certainly has made things much easier!

I have often been helped along that way by many dedicated people, few of whom would ever accept any thing in return. I can still hear their kind words of encouragement: "Keep up the good work Warren, for many people will thank you in the years to come."

Now, my friends, it is time for me to pass on the tradition that many, many thousands of wonderful people freely bestowed upon me in my long journey. For many a year I have joyfully helped thousands of people trace their heritage and have never accepted any payment for my help. Please may I offer you, the reader, my "gift" of the compilation of the Dutch Putmans: the Ancestors and Descendants of Johannes "Jan" Putman. I ask only that you enjoy and pass along whatever discoveries you make to others.

April 1997

Warren Putman spent 25 years researching the line of Johannes Putman, first Dutch Putman immigrant in America. He also researched other Putmans and Putnams, resulting in PAF file of over 32,700 people. This text document is only the first 12 generations of the Putman family from Holland. Warren has made this "book" a gift free of charge to all who want it. He will find great enjoyment in knowing that other Putmans throughout the country have discovered their lineage as a result of his efforts. Please honor him by giving credit to his work should you pass this along to others. Thank you.

I assisted Warren in preparing his PAF for publishing in book format. Please overlook any typing and spelling errors you may find. The PAF was simply too large to edit all of these and would have meant a very long delay before this electronic book could have been made available to you.

There is an INDEX at the end of this document, with birth/death years and corresponding ID/Paragraph numbers so that you may use your Search function of your word processor to go back and find your relative. This file is made in Microsoft WORD format. The number in BOLD just before each descendant refers to the paragraph number identified beside each person's name in the index.

The small number directly after the given name of a descendant refers to the generation number. The # number just after the person's surname refers to the RIN number in the original PAF file. Numerous people around the country will have this PAF and will be able to answer queries.

1. Rutgerus<sup>1</sup> PUTMAN (Attorney)[#3632/], born 1510 in Hamm, Westphalia, Germany; died 1575 in Lipstadt, Westphalia, Germany; buried 1575 in Westphalia, Germany. He married abt. 1535 in Lipstadt, Westphalia, Germany, Agnez (BOSCH) PUTMAN[#3633/], born abt. 1510; died 1588 in Lipstadt, Westphalia, Germany.

Notes for Rutgerus Putman (Attorney)

***Putman, A.H.; "History of the Family of Putman in the Netherland" 1736; p 1. His name is written in the old records as: Rutgerus Putmanus, T.U. Licentus. He was the Advocate Fiscal and Land Stewart, for Count Van Der Lyppe.

Notes for Agnez BOSCH

***Putman, A.H.; "History of the Family of Putman in the Netherland; 1736; p 1. We do not know her parentage.

Children of Rutgerus<sup>1</sup> Putman (Attorney) and Agnez BOSCH were as follows:

- + 2        i        Johannes "John"<sup>2</sup> PUTMAN (Dominie)[#3634/], born 1566 in Lipstadt, Westphalia, Germany. He married Matilda (MEYER) PUTMAN[#3636/].
- 3        ii       Abraham<sup>2</sup> PUTMAN (Attorney)[#3635/], born 1567 in Lipstadt, Westphalia, Germany; died 1650 in England; buried in England. ***Putman, A.H.; "History of the Family of Putman in the Netherland"; 1736; p 1. Very little is known of Abraham. He studied law and migrated to Holland. During the reformation in 1590, he migrated to London, England. It is said that he died and was buried there. He is said to have left descendants there as well.

Generation 2

2. Johannes "John"<sup>2</sup> PUTMAN (Dominie)[#3634/] (Rutgerus<sup>1</sup>), born 1566 in Lipstadt, Westphalia, Germany; died 1658 in Goor, Holland, Netherlands; buried 1658 in Goor, Holland, Netherland, Goor Church. He married in Holland, Netherland, Matilda (MEYER) PUTMAN[#3636/], daughter of Jan MEYER [#3649/].

Notes for Johannes "John" Putman (Dominie)

Putman, A.H.; "History of the Family of Putman in the Netherland; 1736; p 1. John Putman, was a man of great and varied knowledge. He was very decided, and of strong religious opinions. He had a decided opposition to the Armenian faction, who tried all manner of mis-representations to have him join their party. (See "Revius' History of Deventer"; 1618; p 594.) John had to leave his native place, due to his strong religious beliefs. He migrated to Markel, Holland, and kept himself concealed. John taught school there for some years, and was later appointed the Pastor of the church at Goor, Holland. John Putman's name was cast in the bell of the church of Goor, Holland, where he was buried.

Notes for Matilda Meyer

Children of Johannes "John"<sup>2</sup> Putman (Dominie) and Matilda Meyer were as follows:

- + 4      i      Rutger<sup>3</sup> PUTMAN (Dominie)[#3637/], born 1597 in Goor, Holland, Netherland. He married Joanna (VANDENBURGH) PUTMAN[#3639/].
- 5      ii      Abraham<sup>3</sup> PUTMAN[#3638/], born abt. 1600 in Holland, Netherland; died aft. 1674. ***Putman, A.H.; "History of the Family of Putman in the Netherland"; 1736; p 1. Very little is known about Abraham, except that he outlived his brother, John, as he was the one who placed the stone over his brother in the church at Delden. It is surmised that he remained in the netherlands for the balance his life.

Notes for Rutger Putman (Dominie)

Putman, A.H.; "History of the Family of Putman in the Netherland"; 1736; p 1. Rutger was Chaplain with the Landgraf of Hesse Cassel, and after the war, he settled at Dresden, Holland, and was made pastor there by the appointment of the Landgraf. Rutger was a Pastor at Weerselo, Holland, and later at Goor, Holland. He was a very courageous Pastor and very learned. He became the Pastor of the Delden, Holland church in 1634, and remained there for some forty years. He was an exceptionally well educated man, and a famous teacher. As the enemy ruled the country, and the papal authorities were using the Pastor's house and furniture, he lived in the council chambers at City hall. When he died in 1674, his son Paul could not obtain permission to bury him in the church yard, and he was buried in the Heyden cemetery. After peace was declared, Paul was able to place the remains of his father under the Pastor's chair, in the church at Delden. A stone was placed over him by his brother Abraham.

- 6      i      Sarah<sup>4</sup> PUTMAN[#3640/], born in Holland, Netherland. She married in Holland, Netherland, Joachim LIENS[#3659/], born in Zeeland, Holland, Netherland. ***Putman, A.H.; "History of the Family of Putman in the Netherland"; 1736; p 2.
- + 7      ii     Johannes<sup>4</sup> PUTMAN ("Jan")[#1/], born 1645 in Leyden?, So. Holland, Netherland. He married Cornelia Andriese (BRATT) PUTMAN[#2/].

Notes for Johannes Putman ("Jan")

Putman, A.H.; "History of the Putman Family in the Netherland"; 1736; p 2. Here we find a John Putman, born 1645, to Rutger Putman and an unlisted mother. This document was translated in December of 1898, by DeWitt C. Putman. It was published in "The Putnam Leaflets"; Vol. III; # 2; in May of 1899, but copies are scarce and hard to find. Due to the fact that so few copies are still extant, this manuscript was reprinted and indexed in 1989, by the compiler of this record. [W.T.P.]

NOTE: Copies of the reprint have been distributed to the Library of Congress, and to several of the large genealogical societies". [W.T.P.]

Genealogical records of The Holland Society of New York, as quoted in the "Memoirs" of Joseph Wendell Putman, living in 1989, age 93, see page 2, Quote: "As indicated in the genealogical records of the Holland Society of New York, our family history in America begins with the arrival (about 1665) in New Amsterdam, of young Johannes Putman, a cabin boy on a Dutch ship. The prospects for a Dominie's son in Holland were not good in that period, so he jumped ship in New Amsterdam and, not relishing arrest and return to Holland, made his way to the outpost stockade of Schenectady. In the next few years, he met and fell in love with Cornelia Bradt (or Bratt). in the 1670's or 1680's they were married and lived in a cabin in the southeast corner of the stockade (now the corner of Union and Ferry Streets). As a son of a Dominie, I suppose he must have had a fair education, but I have no record of how Cornelia and Johannes Putman lived". End quote.

Callaghan, E.B.; "Documentary History, State of New York"; 1849; Vol 1; p 305. Quote: "List of ye people kild and destroyed by ye French of Canida and there Indians at Skinnechtady between Sat. and Sun. ye 9th. of February, 1689/90. Joh. Potman kild and his wife kild and her scalp taken off". End quote.

Callaghan, E.B.; "Documentary History, State of New York"; 1849; Vol 2; p 201. Quote: "List of goods sent from New York and received from Mons. Jan Hendricksen Brujn and Johannes Proofoost, to be distributed among the refugees of Schoonechtade, to wit: LIST OF OSENBURG LINEN "Johannes Pootman's children.... 70 ells". End quote.

Note: The ell was used chiefly for the measurement of cloth in England. It was equal to 45 inches by our measure. [W.T.P.]

Pearson, J; "Genealogies of the First Settlers of Schenectady" 1873; p 142, 143 Quote: "POOTMAN (Putman)..Johannes (Jan), sixteen years of age in 1661, was apprentised by Jan Hendrickse Van Bael for three years to Philip Hendrickse Brouwer for his food and clothes. He married Cornelia, daughter of Arent Andries Bratt and Catalyntje De Vos. His home lot, in the village, was on the north corner of Union and Ferry streets, having 100 feet frontage on the former street; later he purchased the 100 foot lot next west, of Jan Roeloffse (*), son of the celebrated Anneke Janse." (* Jan Roeloffse De Goyer. [W.T.P.]) "On the fatal night of the 8th. of February, 1690, both Pootman and his neighbor, Roloffse, with their wives, were slain by the French and Indians. The following children were living in 1715, when they received their mother's portion of her father's estate. (101 Pounds, 13 Shillings, 4 Pence.) Arent; Maritie she married Stephen Beduet; Victoor; David; Cornelius; and Catalyntje, who married Cornelius Post". End quote.

Frothingham, W.; "History of Montgomery County"; 1892; p 110. Quote: "Putman (Pootman), Johannes, (Jan), born 1645, lived in Albany 1661-- age 16 years. Moved to Schenectady 1662; married Cornelia Bradt, daughter of Arent A. Bradt. Both massacred by Indians 1690." End Quote.

Cady, Rev. Putnam; Unpublished papers; 1897; p 2; Montgomery Hist.; file 57K. Quote: "Jan Roeloffse, the oldest son of the celebrated Anneke Janse, by her first marriage. He sold subject to the life estate, of himself and wife. They had no children." End quote. [Jan Roeloffse De Goyer, and his wife, were both slain during the Schenectady massacre of February 8/9, 1690.] [W.T.P.]

Putnam, E.; "A History of the Putnam Family in England and America"; 1908; Vol. II; pp 101 & 102. Quote: "Jan or Johannes Putman, of Schenectady, was the founder of the principal Putman family in America. His parentage is at present unknown. It is supposed he was born in Holland in 1645. In 1661, he was 16 years of age, and at that date a resident of Albany. He and his wife, were killed by Indians at the burning of Schenectady, 8 February, 1690. He married Cornelia, the daughter of Arent Andriese and Catalyntje Bratt, of Schenectady." "On 14 September, 1661, Jan Hendrickse Van Bael apprenticed Jan Putman for three years to Philip Hendrickse Brouwer. "Soo heeft Jan Hendr. Van Bael besteet ende Philip Hendr. Brouwer aen genomen Johannes Pootman, jong gesel out tegenwoordich omtrent zestien jaaren" to serve said Brouwer, "van drye achtereen volgende jaaren". Although but sixteen, Jan signed his name "in a clear and beautiful hand", a somewhat unusual accomplishment for the time and place. Upon Brouwer's removal to Schenectady, the boy went with him. Brouwer died early in 1664. Eighty gulden a year was the recompense Putman received in lieu of outfit. Pearson already quoted largely, states that the house lot of Jan Putman, was on the north corner of Union and Ferry Streets, having a front of 100 feet on the former street; later he bought the 100 feet next west of Jan Roeloffse, son of the well known Anneke Janse". (See Cady quote above.) "In Colonial times the law of primogeniture prevailed in New York, thus the right to his father's lands fell to Arent, the eldest son. He, on 6 April, 1709, conveyed a part of the above described land to his brother Victoor". End.

***NOTE: A gulden was a unit of money in the Netherland. It was worth about 28 cents, when compared to our monies. The eighty gulden would have amounted to about $22.40 a year in those times. [W.T.P.]

***Reynolds, Cuyler; "Hudson and Mohawk Genealogical"; Vol. 1; p 179. Quote: Jan Putman was born in Holland, in 1665, and came to America in 1661. He married Cornelia, daughter of Arent Andries Bradt and Catalyntje De Vos. He and his wife were killed in the Schenectady massacre of February 8, 1690."

***Ibid, p 1089.

***Putman, C.W.; Unpublished manuscript; 1914; p 1; Schenectady Historical Soc. Quote: "Jan and Cornelia were both slain, and she was scalped, 8 February, 1690, during the Schenectady massacre. They are both buried under a boulder, in the "Old" Cobblestone Church yard, Rotterdam, Albany County, New York". End quote.

***Putman, G.W.; "Genealogy of David Putman"; 1916; pp 7 & 55; Schenectady Hist. Quote: "Johannes Pootman was born in 1645. In 1661, being 16 years old, was apprentised to P. H. Brower of Albany, N.Y., for three years, signing his name to the papers in a clear, beautiful hand, from which we infer, that he was well educated, an uncommon thing in those days. He was then living in Albany, N.Y. He moved to Schenectady in 1662, being one of it's first settlers. He married Cornelia Bratt, a daughter of Arent Andres Bratt, the Vice-governor of Rensselaerwyck, one of the prominent families of the state". "Jan was orphan master, Deacon of the church, hired the minister, and was Justice of the Peace, under the Leyster administration, those being the most prominent positions in Schenectady in those days. On February 8th., 1690, he and his wife were killed at Schenectady in that awful Indian Massacre of that date, which is recorded in American history. In 1715, the following children were living: Marite, married Stephen Bedent; Aaron; Victor; David; Cornelius; and Catalyntje, who married Cornelius Post". "It is believed that he came from one of the prominent and noble families of Holland, and investigations have been made or attempted to prove it, but with what results is unrecorded. He owned considerable land in Schenectady, a part of which was sold later by one of his sons to Union College". End quote.

Notes for Cornelia Andriese Bratt

***Pearson, J.; "Genealogies of the First Settlers of Schenectady"; 1873, p142.

***Putman, A.B.; Unpublished papers; 1870-1890; p 1; Bette Bradway, Schenectady.

***Putnam, Eben; "A History of the Putnam Family in England and America"; 1908; Vol. II; p 101. Quote: "Catalyntje De Vos was three times married, first to Bratt (by whom she had: Aefie, married to Claas Frederichse Van Petten; Ariaantje, married first Helmer Otten; second, 1676, Reyer Schermerhorn; Andries, killed by the Indians, 1690; Cornelia, born 1655, married Jan Pootman; Samuel; Dirk). Second to Barent Jans Van Ditmar, who was killed in 1690. And third, in 1691, to Claas Janse Van Bockhoven. Her will was made in 1699, but she lived till 1712. In the latter year a division of her estate was made between the following parties, by agreement dated August 11th.: Anne, Arent Bratt (son of Andries), Samuel Bratt, Dirk Bratt, Claas Van Petton and Eva (Aefie), "Syn-wyf", Reyer Schermerhorn and Arianetie his wife, Arant Pootman in behalf of Victor Pootman, David Pootman, Maria Pootman "wyf Van Steven Cofoooy", Cattolina Pootman "wyf of Cornelius Post" Children of Cornelia Brat, "housewife" of Johannis Pootman, etc." End quote.

***NOTE: Thus it will be seen that Pootman was connected with the leading families of Schenectady Patent, particularly the Schermerhorns and Bratts. In the division above mentioned among the signers were Cornelius Pootman and David "Potman". The deed was recorded May, 1715, at Albany, and may be found in book I.

Notes for Lysbet Akkerman

***"The Trail of the Huguenots"; 1966; Reaman, G. Elmore, pp 211-212. The Akerman Family, was originally a French Hugenot family. The Akermans, David and his family, had moved to Holland from Berlicum, in the District of Bois-Le-Duc, in North Brabant, which was in the southwestern part of the Netherlands. The spelling of the name, Bois-Le-Duc, indicates that it was a French speaking district.

***The first immigrant to America of the Akerman family was David Akerman, who after sailing from Amsterdam, Holland, in the Netherlands, disembarked on 8 April, 1662, from the vessel "D'VOS" in New Amsterdam with six children.

***"D'VOS" was a Dutch name, which when translated means "The Fox."

Sophia, born 26 December, 1712, was the daughter of David Potman, (ca. 1685-1761). Well, I will put that yarn to rest and also that claim I'm a descendant of David. I've recently unraveled David's line that has for three hundred years been undeciphered. David did not go to Canada, but to New Jersey*** Although not the earliest settlers of Monmouth County, New Jersey, the Dutch were present in sufficient numbers there, that religious services were held in 1699. 9 April, 1721	David Potman	Child "Fred Sisser, editor of "The Somerset County Genealogical Quarterly", of New Jersey, researched a family that descends from David Potman, mainly that of Thomas Aten, whose wife was Sophia Potman. According to Mr. Sisser, Sophia was born December of 1712, so it appears Sophia is a nickname for Fyke. Mr. Sisser informed me that a deed from Hunterdon County, New Jersey, argues that "Helena" was David's wife." "The Genealogical Magazine of New Jersey"; Vol. 37; p 55. This record discloses that David C. Potman, was a freeholder in Reading Township, Hunterdon County, New Jersey, in 1741. In 1740, an inhabitant, Tom Bell, impersonated the clergy in the county, and a trial placed on the docket determined his guilt. "Freemen above Five and Twenty years of Age." were selected as jurors for the trial, and this included David Potman. The law stated: "The persons qualified to be Freemen ... shall be every planter and inhabitant dwelling and residing within the Province, who has aquired rights to and is in possession fifty acres of ground, and hath cultivated ten acres of it; or in Boroughs, who have a house and three acres; or have a house and land only hired, if he can prove he had fifty pounds in stock of his own..." This presents a mystery to me. If Victor and Maria were already wed in 1705, then they were both born as early as 1680. The only Victor, I have a record of, from that early time period, is Capt. Victor Janse Putman, son of Johannes (Jan) Putman and Catalyntje Bratt, who married Grietje Mabie, 13 December, 1706. I doubt very much that she was the first wife of Capt. Victor Janse Putman. It is my belief that this record was confused when transcribed. [Warren T. Putman] |

Notes for Adolph Hendrick Putman

***Putman, A.H.; "History of the Family of Putman in the Netherland"; 1736; p 2. Adolph is mentioned on several pages of the manuscript; he was the one who compiled it. I have reprinted and indexed this manuscript. Copies are at the Library of Congress, Washington, D.C.; Schenectady Historical Society, Schenectady, NY; Montgomery Historical Society, Fonda, NY; LDS Archives, Salt Lake City, Utah; Everton Publishers, Logan, Utah; Peoria Public Library, Peoria, Ill.; Will County Historical Society, Lockport, Ill.; Illinois State Genealogical Society, Springfield, Ill.; and many other genealogical societies. Adolph was appointed as an advisor to Her Royal Highness, the Princess of Orange and her children, in 1725. This was later made a permanent appointment by His Royal Highness, the Prince of Orange. Here we see a possible connection to the claim of the Mohawk Valley Putmans, that they were indeed connected to the family of the Prince of Orange, of Nassau. His Royal Highness, the Prince of Orange, and her Royal Highness, the Princess of Orange, were both God parents of Adolph and Hermana's son, Willem Putman, who was baptised in their presence, on the 6th. day of March, 1737.

***Wilson, Thomas B., "The Ontario Register", January, 1968. "A Note On the Anguish Family of New York, Pennsylvania, and Ontario"

***Jacob Anguish, born 1720/1724, served in Butler's Rangers during the Revolutionary War, and died soon after the peace as a direct result of privations endured during that conflict. He had lived in the Wyoming Valley of the Susquehanna River in Pennsylvania where he settled about 1770 or so, probably going there from tyron County, New York. I am not working on the Anguish family history, but while doing research on another family, I came across a deed in the Luzerne County Clerk's Office which links members of the Anguish family in Ontario and in Montgomery County, New York. On 11 February, 1800, a half proprietor's right, late the property of Jacob English, deceased "being 300 acres in Plymouth on the Shawana Flats, Luzerne County, Pennaylvania, was sold to Joseph House, of Minden, Montgomery County, New York; and Jacob English, Henry English, Frederick Garrison and Barbara his wife, Henry Putman and Hannah his wife, and Peter Law[r] and elizabeth his wife, all of Lincoln County [now Welland county], Upper Canada." SEE: "Luzerne County Deeds, Vol. 7, page 130."

***It becomes clear from this deed that Jacob Anguish was survived not only by the children in Ontario, named in the deed, but by two others, John English and Maria, the wife of Peter Eigenbradt, in Montgomery County, New York.

Quote: "John Putman was born at Tribes Hill, NY, in 1774, being the oldest son of David and Hannah Putman. He located in his young manhood in the town of Cherry Valley, Otsego county, NY. The town is now Roseboom. I have been unable to obtain his marriage or to whom. One of his grandsons thinks her maiden name was Caroline Winnie. His brother Abraham's daughter, Alida, says her name was Katalina, but she did not know the last part. It is possible they are both right as the name of Winnie was among the old settlers of Tribes Hill, and as the name Katalina was a Holland Dutch name, it may have been changed to Caroline. He was a farmer and settled on a farm about two miles from South Valley, NY., on what is locally called "Honey Hill," where their children were born and where they died. Their interment is in a private cemetery on their son-in-law's farm, near the old home. There were born to them eight children, two sons and six daughters: Francis, William, Margaret, Anna, Hannah, Elenor, Catharine and Agnes." End quote.

Notes for Ebeneazer G. Putman

***EBENEAZER G. PUTMAN, was born 11 August, 1788, in Johnstown, Montgomery County, New York.

***Will; John L.; father; proved 23 December, 1811; Book 1; Montgomery County, New York; Surrogate's office; Fonda, New York. Ebeneazer G. was a beneficiary and an executor of his father's will.

***1813: Ebeneazer G. married Rebecca Frey (er?), 2 September, 1813, at the Johnstown Presbyterian Church. Their marriage was witnessed by Margaret and Hannah Putman. Rebecca Frey was born 25 October, 1793. (Parentage unknown.)

***1813: Guardianship papers; Montgomery County Surrogate's office; Fonda, NY. Ebeneazer G. bonded Philip Graff, to be the guardian of his brother, John G. Putman, now about 17 years of age.

***1816: Ebeneazer G. sold the land he inherited from his father's estate, to his brother, John G. Putman, on 1 April, 1816.

***1817: "The Montgomery County, New York Bail Book, 1816 through 1843." 4 April, 1817. A case against Daniel Meeker, Jr., of Johnstown, New York. Eben G. Putman, Gilbert Haggart, and John Doe, all of Johnstown, Montgomery County, New York, plaintiffs. As per "Orders and Decrees, 1812 through 1816, Montgomery County, New York" Daniel Meeker, Jr., was appointed as guardian to Peter J. Putman, aged 14 years on December last. Daniel Meeker, Jr. posted a bond in the amount of two hundred and fifty dollars as surety for this act, dated December of 1813. The above case relates to the bond and surety and the lack of performance of Daniel Meeker, Jr. as guardian to Peter J. Putman, the brother of Eben G. Putman, and brother-in-law of Gilbert Haggart.

***1818: Ebeneazer G. and Jacob Graff, bought land from Abraham and Asenath Akins. Recorded 24 October, 1818. Liber 16;232. Grantor: Abraham Akins, and his wife, Asenath Akins. Grantee: Eben G. Putman, and Jacob Graff. Indenture of 21 October, 1818, between Abraham Akins, and Asenath, his wife, and Jacob Graff and Eben G. Putman,... in consideration of $1000.00,.. land in the town of Johnstown, Montgomery County, New York. A part of lot 111, in the western patent allotment of the Kingsborough patent. ... 45 acres excepting 5 acres in the south east corner.. belonging to Prudence Mathews. Signed by: Abraham Akins and Asenath Akins.

***1829: land sale, recorded 17 March, 1829. Liber 8;10. Grantor: Eben G. Putman. Grantee: Daniel Cady. Indenture of 7 March, 1829, between Joseph Packard of the first part, Daniel Cady of the second part, whereas Jacob Graff, and Sarah, his wife, Fben G. Putman, and Rebecca, his wife, by an indenture of mortgage that bears the date of 21 October, 1818... made between Jacob Graff, and Sarah, his wife, and Eben G. Putman, and Rebecca, his wife, of the first part, and Abraham Akins of the second part... lot # 411 in the western allotment of the Kingsborough patent.. west to the corner of land of William Allen.

***1830 census: Salisbury, Herkimer County, New York. Eben G. Putman was listed with 2 males under 5, 2 males 5 to 10, 1 male 10 to 15, and one male 40 to 50. (Eben) also: 1 female under 5, 1 female 5 to 10, 2 females 30 to 40.

***I would suggest that the family consisted of Ebeneazer G. 42 NY. His wife, Rebecca 37 NY. Their two daughters and five sons, and Eben's sister, Sally 37 NY, a widow whose husband died in April of 1829. There is also the possibility that some of the children were born to Sally and her husband.

***1831: Ebeneazer appeared as a witness on the part of his brother, Lodewyck, in the hearing of Margaret McVean's petition for her legacy from John L. Putman, her grandfather. (She was the daughter of Hannah.)

***1847: Ebeneazer G.'s wife, Rebecca, died 21 May, 1847, at the age of 53 years, 5 months, and 4 days. The place of death and burial are unknown yet.

***1908: Sometime prior to 1908, Ebeneazer G. Putman, Jr., provided information to Eben Putnam, for his compilation of "The Putnam family in England and America." Published in 1908.

***1984: N.A.T.F. search for records on Ebeneazer G. for service in the War of 1812 was returned with a negative response.

***1840 census: Reading, Steuben County, New York, p 117. Eben Putman. This census record needs to be checked.

***1850 census: Orange, Steuben County, New York, p 152. Ebeneser Putman. This census record needs to be checked.

***1860 census: Glen, Montgomery County, New York, p 25. Ebben Putman. This census record needs to be checked.

***I do not have a copy of the New York 1870 census index for Putman/Putnam, but I doubt that Ebeneazer Sr., survived that long, as he would have been 82 by then. His son, Ebeneazer Jr., may be listed in 1870.

***Frothingham, W.; "History of Montgomery County"; 1892; p 111; Montgomery Hist.

Quote: "Philip V., son of Victor, born in Root, November 20, 1791; married Elizabeth Kring. They had seven sons and two daughters. He was a hatter by trade, also a cloth dresser. He died August 19, 1859. Wife died February 22, 1856. Soldier in War of 1812; moved to Palatine in 1833." End quote.

***NOTE: If in fact, they had seven sons and two daughters, as Mr. Frothingham indicates, then we need to search out three more sons. The other thing we must address is the birth year of Elizabeth. I believe the census has to be wrong about her age of 50, which would indicate a birth year of 1800, as her daughter, Margaret, was born in 1809. The census has to be in error. (W.T.P.)

Notes for David Putman

***Jeannie Germain, 10224 Janet, French Camp, California 9531

***"The Putman Family Bulletin", September/October issue, page 2. Jeanne Germain is looking for the ancestry of David Putman, who was reported to have been born in the town of Amsterdam, NY, in 1795. Possibly, David's parents were Jacob Putman, and Elizabeth McCarthy. In about 1815/1818, David married Ann, who was born in the town of Florida, Montgomery County, New York, in 1797. Ann may have been a Vrooman by birth. David and Ann lived in several places; Beginning with the town of Florida, then about 1820, in Saratoga, then by 1830, to Syracuse, then to Albany, and then about 1858, and then back to Syracuse. David died about 1858, and Ann died 30 May, 1875, reportedly at the age of 80. They both were buried at Lobi Cemetery, but relatives later removed their remains to Oakland Cemetery, in 1902. It is interesting to note that at the time of their reinternment, the next of kin were France Putman, and Mary McCarthy. They are known to have had at least 6 children born to their union.

Notes for Solomon Putman

***IGI; LDS; Sept., 1981; p 12,894; Listed as father of Benjamin, and others.

***1810 census: Litchfield, Herkimer County, New York; p 457 2 males under 10; 1 male 26-45; 4 females under 10; 1 female 26-45. This indicates that there were six children under the age of 10, in 1810, presumably born in Herkimer County, NY.

***1820 census: Litchfield, Herkimer County, New York; p 37. 2 males under 10; 1 male 26-45; 1 male over 45; 4 females under 10; 2 females 10-16; 1 female 16-26; 1 female 26-45. This indicates that there were 9 children born by 1820. The male over 45 is probably the father of one of them.

***1830 census: Litchfield, Herkimer County, New York; p 191 .

***1840 census: I could not locate Solomon on any index.

***Note: The above Solomon, is the only Solomon Putman/Putnam listed in any of the federal census reports for the State of New York, from 1790 through 1860.

Notes for Margaretha Walrath

***IGI; LDS; Sept., 1981; Listed as mother of Benjamin, and others.

***Note: Margaretha is listed several times in the above records as mother of the children being baptised, and as wife of Solomon. Mrs. Bette Bradway, C.G., who has done research on Solomon and Margaretha, is inclined to believe, as I do, that Margaretha was a "Walrath by birth." We both base this on the fact that all but one of their children, whose records we have located, have a Walrath as a baptismal sponsor. The single exception being Elizabeth Van Campen, who may later prove to be closely related to the Putman and/or Walrath families as well. [Warren T. Putman]

***1860 census: Theresa, Jefferson County, New York. Margaretha is listed as 82 NY, and is with her son, Henry.

Children of Solomon<sup>8</sup> Putman and Margaretha Walrath were as follows:

***ISAAC PUTMAN, was born in Schenectady and baptised there on 17 March, 1796. (Schenectady was in Albany County until 1809, then was in Schenectady County) A cousin of his, Ernestus Putman, had written home tolling the beauty of Virginia, and this probably roused Isaac's wanderlust. Just as he got to the Virginia hills, Ohio was opening up, so he and Ernestus moved on to Ohio.

***Clarke County had been formed from Champaign County, Ohio in 1818.

***1819: Isaac married Charlotte Spillman, 11 January, 1819, in Clark County, Ohio.

He settled in the town of Steuben, Oneida County, New York. He was a farmer and tanner. He was a member of the Baptist church and served as Chorister for many years. A noted feature of the Steuben family was their fine voices. The father, with his deep bass, and the others supplying the other parts, made the church singing a most interesting feature. He died at the home of his daughter, near Rome, New York, aged about ninety years. He changed the spelling of his name to Putnam. He married in the town of Herkimer, Oneida County, New York, Abby Young, born in Steuben, Oneida County, New York, 1804. She was a woman of delicate constitution and died prior to her husband, aged seventy-four. She was also a Baptist. Children:..." End quote.

Notes for John Henry Putman

***Source: Sue Kendrick, 14808 SW 125 Court, Miami, FL, 33186, April 16, 1995.

***1850 census: Spafford, Onondaga County, New York. John H. is listed as 22 NY, and is with his father.

***"History of Contra Costa California" 1926, states that he left New York in 1853, and embarked for California via the Isthmus of Panama.

***"San Francisco Passenger list", Vol 1, indicates J. Putnam arrived in San Francisco on 5 March, 1853, on the ship "CORTES", 14 days out of Panama. They experienced rough weather and very strong winds for several of those days. ***John H. arrived in California in 1853, and upon his arrival he went to the gold mines around Placerville, in El Dorado County, where he prospected and mined gold until he contracted rheumatism. He then moved to Lafayette, in Contra Costa County, where he went to work for Squire Elam Brown.

***1857 Marriage: John H. and Elizabeth Sophronia Shuey, were married in 1857, in California.

***John and Elizabeth then moved to Humboldt County, where they settled on the Eel River and farmed there until the trouble with the Indians forced them to leave that area in 1858. They traded their land for a band of stock, which they then drove overland to Contra Costa County. While they were enroute there they stopped for the night in the Russian River country of Sonoma County and they negotiated with a resident for grazing for the night for the herd. The man had large cornfield about half a mile back of the place where they wanted to keep the herd, and John told the owner he would put a border between the grass plot and the corn so as to keep the animals from damaging the latter. The man replied that he would stand any loss from the stock eating his corn. The next morning, when they came to get their cattle, none were in sight and they were traced to the cornfield; but when Mr. Putnam arrived there he realized what the owner had meant when he said he would be responsible for damage, for the stalks were twenty feet high and a man would have to be on horseback to reach the lowest ear on the stalk.

***1858: Upon arriving in Pacheco, Contra Costa County. John H. built the first hotel there. He operated this for about eight months, but ranching appealed to him more strongly, however, and he went to Fruitvale, in Alameda County, where his wife's father had settled in 1860.

***1872: John H. went into the general merchandise business in Walnut Creek, which he continued as a profession for seven years.

Putnam, was one of the committee members appointed to draft an act of incorporation for the town, in February of 1872. During the first town meeting on 13 May, 1872, John H. was Marshall Elect. Up to within a year or so, and as long as he was able, he was a hard working man, diligent in his business. The recent death of his son "Jack" was a heavy blow to him and he has borne more than an average share of the burdens of this world. An appropriate epitaph to him would be: "At Rest." #### Notes for Mary Esther Germain ***Frothingham, W.; "History of Montgomery County"; 1892; p 20; Fonda Archives. Quote: "Putman, W. Brower, Mohawk, Tribes Hill p.o., was born in the town of Johnstown, June 5, 1829, and is a descendant of Victor Putman, who held the grant for the mile square of land in the town of Amsterdam. Mr. Putman's boyhood was spent with his parents. He attended the village schools and assisted on the farm until 1853, when he hired a farm in Amsterdam and conducted it three years. He then moved to the town of Mohawk, and in 1872, bought the farm which he now occupies and which contains seventy-five acres. He has greatly improved the place during the twenty years of his ownership, and has built a very fine house, also new barns and other outbuildings, rendering it double in value since he made the purchase. March 4, 1853, he married Mary E. German of Schoharie, and they are the parents of six children: Henry of Johnstown; Alvin of Tribes Hill; Ira of Mayfield; Emory of Fultonville; Adelbert of Mayfield; and William who lives at home. Mr. Putman has always been interested in politics, but never an office seeker. His ambition has been to reach the point where he now stands as a successful farmer; one characterized by industry and good management, elements which are so essential to those who cultivate the soil." End quote.
